BOROUGH WILL BUY NEW CAR, ADD OFFICER

Gettysburg borough council Monday night authorized the employment of an additional full-time policeman and the purchase of a second police car. Wages of borough highway workers were increased; the Penns Valley Publishing Co. of State College was authorized to codify the borough's ordinances, and stone bids were awarded and Ralph Bowling's bid to construct the new maintenance building at the Recreation Field for $3,783 was accepted.

NEED SECOND CAR

Mayor William G. Weaver told council, "We definitely need another policeman, in fact I would recommend two additional policemen, and we need a second police car if we are to give the town the protection it should have." He noted, that "We have two policemen each day out of town for a period of time merely to take care of school crossings. And there is no way to avoid that responsibility. Two cars would also give us an opportunity to be in two parts of the town at the same time. I think it would help cut down speeding."

Safety Committee Chairman Richard Smith said his committee agreed on the need for an additional policeman. The town now has a chief, a police sergeant and five patrolmen. He also agreed that the town

Burglars broke into the Moose Home on York St. Monday night, borough police reported today. Details are unavailable.

Sgt. Daniel Miller, of the borough police, and Cpl. George Evanko, of the state police, are investigating.

Five-Mill School Tax Cut Expected For Gettysburg, Freedom, Highland Twps.

FRANKLIN TWP. SCHOOL TAX TO BE UNCHANGED

The Franklin Twp. School Board at its April meeting Monday evening tentatively approved a $343,671 budget for 1964-65 based on a continuation of present tax rates and accepted resignations of three teachers. One teaching position was filled.

An increase in state appropriations will help the township school district meet its new budget that will continue a 20 per cent occupation tax, a 60-mill real estate levy, a $10 per capita tax, a five per cent amusement tax and a one per cent real estate transfer tax.

The budget, which will be available for public inspection until May 1 at the Franklin Twp. school office at Cashtown, itemizes expenses this way: Administration, $6,000; instruction, $80,000; health services, $2,300; transportation, $30,100; operation of plant, $10,000; maintenance, $750; fixed charges, $5,500; food service, $125; county library, $125; capital outlay, $1,000; debt service, $50,750 in school building rentals with all but $2,300 of that amount going for Gettysburg jointure rentals; payments to the Gettysburg jointure, $148,000 and $7,500 for special education services. Estimated revenues are placed at $344,013.

Belgian Hospitals Are Overflowing With Ill; Doctors Still On Strike

By TOM OCHILTREE

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—Belgium's hospitals were crowded to the bursting point today as the doctors strike rounded out its first week with no solution in sight.

Wary nurses struggled to keep up with the flood of patients. Beds were set up in the corridors. Some civilian patients were sent to military hospitals.

Only serious cases were admitted, brought in under emergency arrangements set up by the 10,000 striking doctors, who have been joined by 2,000 dentists.

The physicians, who are protesting new provisions in Belgium's national health scene, have arranged to treat pressing cases. But their opponents claim this is not meeting the needs of the country's 9 million people. Interior Minister Arthur Gilson said the emergency setup was "not sufficient because there is no treatment for sick

Real estate owners in Gettysburg and Freedom and Highland Twps. can look for a five-mill cut in their school tax levy this year.

That action was indicated at a meeting of the Gettysburg Area Merged School Board Monday evening when preliminary approval was given to a $790,793 budget that is subject to revision if the proposed joint school district budget is materially changed next Monday evening.

The seven directors present for the 40-minute session at the high school voted unanimously to drop the real estate levy from 50 mills to 45 mills. Four directors were absent.

OTHER LEVIES SAME

The 10 per cent occupation tax, the $12.50 per capita tax and the one per cent real estate transfer tax will be continued without change.

The tax action came after some discussion in which the possibilities for tax reduction were narrowed to the real estate levy or the occupation tax which went up a year ago from five per cent to 10 per cent. Apparently accepting the reasoning that the occupation levy covers a larger number of taxpayers and that the heaviest tax load is now carried by real estate, the millage slash was approved.

Increased state appropriations, partly because the districts have formed a merger, were given as the reason the tax cut is possible despite expected rises in school costs.

UP $94,000

The total budget is about $94,000 above the budget for the current year. Of that increase about $68,000 is in expected larger payments toward joint school district expenses while rentals for school buildings are expected to jump about $16,000 because of a contemplated addition to the senior high school building.

The Gettysburg Area district will pay $68,216 into the joint district treasury in the next year under a proposed budget to go before the joint district board next Monday.

Each mill of real estate tax provides about $6,000. Each one per cent of occupation tax brings in about $3,500, the board was told.

BIG BALANCE HELPS

The proposed budget, which will be acted upon finally in May, provides for a $5,000 reserve and all sections of the budget show

NEED $107,000 FOR SWIM POOL PROJECT HERE

Gettysburg borough council Monday night considered the possibility of a campaign for $107,000 to construct a public swimming pool here but could not reach an immediate conclusion on how the drive could be conducted.

The recreation board brought the matter before council at its session in the engine house. Kenneth Dengler, chairman of the recreation board, reported the advisory committee named by the board "has now completed its work and we are ready for the next step." He said the type pool recommended is a 60-by-125-foot olympic size pool with bath-houses, snack bar, etc., could be completed for $107,000. It should be located on the Recreation Field in the now undeveloped area behind the ball diamonds.

PLAN FUND RAISER
Stouck Associates of Reading would conduct the campaign for funds at a cost of $3,500, with expenditures estimated at about $2,000 for printing, stationery, stamps, etc., needed for the campaign.

Dengler said: "It is now up to council to decide whether a fund campaign should be conducted, whether Stouck Associates should be hired and all the other details. We have gone as far as we can."

Attorney John A. MacPhail, Barton Hoppe, Rev. Robert MacAskill were among members of the advisory committee who outlined how that committee had reached its recommendations. Rec board members Guile W. Lefever, Mrs. Janet Wickham and Chairman Dengler were among others who spoke.

VOICES PROTEST
Council President Philip M. Jones said he recommended that the fund campaign be carried out by professionals. He said that he had had two experiences with hospital fund drives "where we raised much larger sums." One was conducted without professional help, the other was conducted by professionals "and we found the cost was exactly the same whether you do it yourself or have a professional do it. And if the professionals do it, then you save yourself an awful lot of work."

Leo McDermitt protested against the town putting in a swimming pool because it might increase taxation, but said he was for a pool if done by an authority or nonprofit corporation established for that purpose.

WOULD CHARGE FEES
Dengler and others reported that a survey of 20 pools operated by municipalities, many much smaller than Gettysburg, showed all had paid for themselves. The discussion had indicated that a fee would be charged for operation of the pool and to pay off its cost over a period of years. Based on the experience of other pools a family membership of $50 per year would be sold, a couple with no children would pay $80, single people $10 per year.

Based on experience of other pools, the local pool if constructed could reasonably expect an income of $34,500 a year from season passes and snack bar operation and could operate at a cost of $9,980 a year, leaving a profit of $24,520 to be used to amortize the cost, or to make repairs and improvements and "we could even hope that possibly some profit could go to help pay other Recreation activities," President Jones said.

QUESTIONS RAISED
Councilman William Lentz said council can set up a budget and levy a tax for activities, but said he doubted if it could authorize a drive for funds by public subscription. Attorney Donald G. Oyster added that he was not sure whether such a drive could be conducted by council.

It was suggested that the Recreation Board could conduct the drive, but it was pointed out that the Recreation Board is a creature of council.

A question was raised as to how the library had conducted a drive and Attorney Oyster answered that the library was a nonprofit corporation, set up as an "entity," and "therefore could legally take such action."

GIVEN TO COMMITTEE
At the end of the discussion, President Jones appointed a committee, comprised of Councilman Robert McCoy, chairman, Councilmen William Lentz and Kenneth Hull, Attorney John MacPhail, Mrs. Marcus Ritter and Recreation Director Ray Thompson, "to discuss and work out some way we can and should do this and bring it up to the next council meeting."

He added that the committee "is free to contact anyone for ideas and any citizen of the area should feel free to suggest any ideas he may have on the subject to the committee. I think we need a swimming pool and I think it can be done."

WORKER INJURED
Richard E. McClell, 23, Biglerville, an employee of the Gettysburg Municipal Authority, was treated Monday at the Warner Hospital of an abrasion and contusion of the right knee suffered when he slipped and fell in mud.

Eltz - Fry

Miss Linda Darlene Fry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Siemon, Gettysburg R. 6, became the bride of Burnell Francis Eltz Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Burnell Eltz, Hanover, Saturday at 10 a.m. in a nuptial Mass at St. Francis Xavier Church. The Rev. John Wildeman was celebrant and conducted the double-ring ceremony. The church was decorated with white regal lilies.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white nylon over satin. Her veil was shoulder-length. She carried yellow carnations and yellow orchids.

Miss Phyllis E. Eltz, Hanover, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a blue satin ballerina-length gown with white accessories and carried a nosegay of blue and white carnations.

James Fry, brother of the bride, was best man.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents was attended by about 50 guests. The couple will reside in a mobile home at Gettysburg R. 6.

CLEANUP OF GETTYSBURG IS UNDERWAY

Gettysburg's annual "cleanup" program is now underway. Borough Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner told council Monday night.

Borough workmen are combing the alleys with trucks, he said, to pick up limbs, brush, wood or other trash. April 27 is the last date on which the trucks will pick up the trash, Winebrenner said.

Council authorized Winebrenner to repair the four benches placed in Lincoln Square last year by the Lions Club. During the winter three of the benches were damaged.

A discussion over whether the post office can continue to drain from its footers into the town's sanitary sewer system led to decision to turn the question back to the Municipal Authority. President Philip Jones said the Authority "has buried its head in the ground every time one brings up a problem. It has not co-operated on any problem." Sewer Committee Chairman Richard Smith said his committee and the Municipal Authority met recently and "things will be better."

INSPECT SIDEWALKS

The highway committee was authorized to inspect the sidewalks and curbs along streets to be repaired this summer and send notices to those who are to make repairs before the work starts.

Mayor William G. Weaver reported conferring with John Gastley to ask improvement of conditions on his property, rear of Baltimore St. Weaver said he had "gotten nowhere" and has asked state fire marshals and the state health board to send inspectors.

The question of rental of borough equipment and borough workmen for outside jobs was discussed. Highway Chairman Robert McCoy said he had not allowed it, feeling that for the borough to rent out equipment interfered with private contractors. Winebrenner said contractors are the principal renters of the borough's roller. The matter was referred back to the highways committee to decide whether it wishes to rent the equipment.

CLUB MEMBERS HEAR LECTURE ON SCOTLAND

The beauties of the countryside and the temperament of the Scots make television and other entertainment unnecessary for family happiness, Miss Anne Lott told 31 fellow-members of the Biglerville Garden Club Monday evening in St. Paul's Lutheran Church social room.

"The heart of Scotland is not in its hills or its lakes; it is in the people," she said. Miss Lott spent last summer and early winter in Scotland as an international farm youth and lived with several Scottish families. She was particularly impressed by their love of flowers and their appreciation of color. She showed slides of fields of heather and said, "White heather is considered to be lucky." Her pictures included plantings of evergreens, dwarf trees and other plants which are familiar to Americans. She told club members, "The Scots are not stingy people, as we often are led to believe, but they do not throw money away foolishly. When they want something, they buy it, and they pay cash for it."

BLOSSOM DECORATIONS

Club activities for the month will include decorating the auditorium at South Mountain Fairgrounds for Apple Blossom Sunday, May 3, when the new county queen will be crowned.

Approximately a dozen members of the Biglerville club will attend the spring meeting of District Four in York Thursday, and reservations have been made for a bus trip to the National Arboretum, Washington, D. C., and the Plant Industry Station, USDA, Beltsville, Md., April 30.

Club members signed a petition circulated by the Pennsylvania Roadside Council, Inc., seeking legislation to protect all limited access highways in the state from billboard defacement in the interest of economy, safety, beauty and protection of property values. The petition will be forwarded to Governor Seranton for action.

"TROUBLEMAKERS"

Wherever I go I find them... yes, they are everywhere... always spreading rumors... seldom on the square... they thrive on idle gossip... and seeing someone squirm... indeed they are as slippery... as a garden worm... they're good at starting arguments... and then without a sound... they retreat to a vantage point... standing on hallowed ground... confusion is their tool... they put it to good use... for whenever confusion reigns... someone suffers abuse... what makes them tick I do not know... but this I know for sure... whenever I am close to them... I'm rather insecure.

"Eight out of 10 people do not know there is a vocational rehabilitation public service provided by Pennsylvania in cooperation with the federal government to help prepare handicapped persons for gainful employment," Elwood Hartman, rehabilitation counselor for Adams County, said at a meeting of the Adams - Franklin - Fulton District of the Pennsylvania Nurses' Association in the Warner Hospital Thursday evening.

Mrs. Catharine F. H. Groff introduced Mr. Hartman. Mr. Hartman said the program had its beginning in 1920, and in the last three years has made great strides in every county of Pennsylvania and now this state is the leader in U.S. Today, all Pennsylvania citizens 16 years of age or older who have a permanent disability which prevents them from engaging in gainful employment, but who can be prepared for new jobs, and those who have been injured and are unable to return to their old jobs are eligible for this service.

During the business session, Mrs. Virginia Myers, R.N., Chambersburg, acted as president. The names of Miss Elsie Cantwell, Bucks County, and Miss S. Sreber, Dauphin County, were nominated for the Pennsylvania nurse of the year award to be honored at the PNA convention to be held in Philadelphia, October 29-November 1. Delegates were nominated. Mrs. Delp is the district's newsletter editor and Mrs. Wagman is active in Civil Defense program. BOROUGH WILL should have two police cars, and held, "This may save some money on repairs because we would have a car to trade in every year."

COMMITTEE TO HIRE MAN

The council action authorized the safety committee, "after investigation," to name the new policeman from the list of those who had passed the Civil Service examination and to purchase a second car.

Miss Elizabeth Smedley, of Penns Valley Publishers, State College, outlined to council the work her company proposes to do on codifying the ordinances at a cost of $4,620. She reported that council had "greatly helped" the work by having copies made over the last several years of the more than 750 ordinances adopted since the town was established in 1806.

Her company, she said, would go over all of the ordinances, make recommendations of which ones should be repealed, make suggestions of such ordinances as should be adopted. The amendments of each ordinance over the years will be traced to determine the final standing of each ordinance and 12 copies of an "ordinance book" will be printed containing all of the ordinances in their final forms, and a complete index listing everything that the ordinances cover.

As she explained it, "in the index every ordinance pertaining to the mayor, to streets, or whatever, would be listed in one section, so all that would be necessary would be to look for the subject in which you are interested and you would have all laws governing it." Attorney Donald Oyler, the borough solicitor, when asked his opinion, told council, "It is not my duty to say whether you should accept the offer of this group, but I will say that the town's laws need codification badly. Because of amendments of amendments of amendments, in some fields it is absolutely impossible to determine exactly what our borough's laws are." Council authorized its officers to enter into the contract for the work.

ACCEPT LOW BID

Tar bids were received from Henson Paving Co., Hanover, at 22 and 24 cents for various types offered, and from Service Supply at 22 1/2, 24 1/2 and 24 3/4 cents. The Henson bid was accepted as the lower of the two for the types of tar desired by the town.

Stone bids were received from Bethlehem Steel, Hanover; Teeter Stone and Gettysburg Limestone.

Council accepted the bid of Bethlehem Steel for sand and screening and chips at the low bid at $1.50 a ton for that type material. For 2, 2B, 3 and 4 stone Gettysburg Limestone bid $1.40 a ton and Teeter $1.50 a ton. Council accepted the Teeter bid, holding that at a difference of 10 cents a ton it will be cheaper to drive two miles to the Teeter quarry to get the stone than to drive the approximately five miles further to Gettysburg Limestone. The borough's trucks carry six to eight tons.

REC PARK BUILDING

Three bids were received for construction of a concrete block maintenance building at Recreation Park to replace the present frame sheds which are "in bad repair." Allen McDonnell bid $4,010; Ralph Bowling, Gettysburg R. 3, $3,763, and Gettysburg Construction, $3,995. Council accepted the Bowling bid as the lowest of the three.

Increases in wages by 10 cents an hour for borough highway employees, effective April 1, were voted. The new scale is $1.50 for laborer, $1.60 for truck driver and $1.70 for machine operator. FIFTY YEARS AGO

Begin Operations: Actual work of constructing the great white marble memorial the nation is to erect to Abraham Lincoln was begun in Washington Monday, in Potomac Park, the site of the proposed memorial, a large force of workmen began excavating for the foundation of the structure. Ground was officially broken for the memorial, which is to cost $2,000,000, on February 12 last, the one hundred and fifth anniversary of Lincoln's birth. This is the monument which was chosen in preference to the Lincoln Way from Washington to Gettysburg.

Many New Homes Will Be Built: The steady and healthy expansion of Gettysburg is again shown this spring in the great demand for houses and flats and in the building operations now in progress or soon to be commenced. A number of fine new homes are to be built in Gettysburg this summer and there are now practically no vacant houses in the town, while flats are at a premium. South Street which has been recently opened up for building purposes is to have another double brick house, Emory Plank being the owner. There are two other houses on that street now and it promises soon to be one of the most popular sections of "Sleepy Hollow." Several new houses are to go up in the north end of town this summer. Frank R. Peckman, who has been living for several years at the corner of Broadway and Mummansburg Road, is planning to put up a residence for his own occupancy on the south side of Broadway between Washington and Carlisle streets. John W. Brenham is also planning to build on his lot on the south side of Broadway between the homes of Edgar A. Crouse and Paul A. Martin. George Stallsmith is planning to build a row of two double brick houses on Stratton street near Railroad street, improving greatly that portion of town and contributing materially to the other building operations in that part of Gettysburg. Charles Sheads has started to build a brick house on Hanover street near Fourth street and Harold Strickhouser is building a double brick house on York street near Fourth street, adding to the rapidly increasing number of new homes in the eastern end of town. James Weikert recently completed his double house on York street and it is now occupied. Mr. Weikert himself is residing in the one portion of it. Ernest Ziegler's new home on North Washington street near Chambersburg street has been pushed right along and will be very long before ready for occupancy. Remodeling will be done in a number of houses and at several business places improvements are under consideration. Men who make a business of laying concrete pavements are also looking forward to busy days as soon as "the frost is out of the ground," and the town will take another step forward to rid itself of its present undesirable reputation for bad sidewalks.

THE THINGS ETERNAL
If life be nothing but a fight
For food; a place to sleep at night,
And fire and robes to wear;
If growth be nothing more than size,
And age be merely dimming eyes,
Then death's the end of care.

If men, like bugs and flies and worms,
But live their days on nature's terms
And in her process die,
Then brute and beast, who eat and drink,
Are better off than men who think
And often sit and sigh.

But age with joy a book can thumb
And dream of ampler years to come,
And under every care
And back of hurt of every kind
The thoughtful man can solace find
Which softens his despair.

Long after nature's growth is done
A growth in wisdom still goes on,
With its attendant peace,
And something hints that worldly strife
Is but the gateway to a life
Where growth shall never cease.

Today's Talk

AIRING THE MIND

One of the main reasons why it is profitable to take a vacation or to seek a change from one's ordinary daily procedure is that it gives the mind a chance to air itself — to get new ozone into its stuffy chambers, and thus become renovated.

Books and ever renewing human contacts do this, but in no radical fashion. The mind needs a little shaking and bouncing about to wake it up and set all its cells to work. A change of scene and a change of work react upon the mind in a wonderful manner. You don't have to journey far to get this result, either!

For years I have loved the writings of naturalists, and have known and talked with many. I have never met a pessimist among them. There are too many interests and new revelations that keep their minds alert — and cleanly aired.

The open mind in open nature takes the air of hope and fortifies the soul against discouragement. The well-aired mind is receptive, and accumulates fast and furiously, under the inspiration of new faces, new scenes and new experiences.

With the perfume of earth in the air and the warmth of the sun touching every growing thing, there is an immediate uplift to the spirit, and the mind tosses up its shades, opens wide its windows — and airs itself into an ecstasy. The sea speaks its silent message, each tree nods its approval, and the tiniest inhabitant of the wild offers up its praise.

This airing of the mind is a silent process, but its significance rebounds, and every natural function of the body is stimulated, as well. We all look different and act different after this airing "bath." And we feel different.

During these anxious and unsettled times we need not only this airing of the mind but a thorough airing of the spirit — cleansing it from all despondency and defeatism.

PUC Approves 'Phone Service

HARRISBURG (AP) — The York Telephone and Telegraph Co. will adjust the boundary between its York and Manchester exchanges and enlarge the Spring Grove base rate area April 19.

The two moves were approved Monday by the Public Utility Commission.

The boundary switch allows homes in the growing area between York and Manchester to be served from the York exchange, although the immediate effect is transfer of only one customer.

Enlargement of the Spring Grove base rate area will provide a higher grade of service to some users, the PUC said. Twelve-party line customers will get four-party service at no change in rates.

WALLACE EYES BADGER VOTES AGAINST LBJ

By PAUL CLIFFORD
MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Wisconsin voters choose today between their governor, John W. Reynolds, and Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama in a presidential primary that has evolved into a referendum on the federal civil rights bill.

Reynolds is running as a favorite son, pledged to cast Wisconsin's 46 votes in the Democratic National Convention for President Johnson.

The primary is the first test of the ability of Wallace, an uncompromising segregationist, to draw voter support in a Northern state.

Complicating the picture is the possibility of Republican participation in the Democratic contest.

SEE HEAVY VOTE

State Election Supervisor Leo Fahey has predicted a million votes may be cast. This would be 200,000 short of the record primary ballot, cast in 1960 when the late John F. Kennedy won a majority of Democratic delegates from Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota.

Cloudy skies with showers or snow flurries and temperatures in the 20s and 30s were forecast.

A telegram from President Johnson describing Reynolds as "a patriot and a leader in whom we can all take pride" was read at a testimonial dinner for the governor Saturday night in Madison by Postmaster General John Gronouski. Gronouski, former state tax commissioner, returned to the state Friday to help Reynolds campaign.

Cronin Sees Four Teams Pressing Yanks In Flag Race; 1st Game Monday

By BOB HOOBING
BOSTON (AP)—Chicago, Baltimore, Minnesota and Detroit will press the defending champion New York Yankees in a five-way American League pennant fight, President Joe Cronin believes.

His reasoning: All four show marked improvement while the Yankees, seeking their 14th flag in 16 years, have stood still.

The 64th campaign opens next Monday with Los Angeles in Washington. Cronin made his remarks Monday on the basis of his observations at Florida spring training camps.

4 TOP CHALLENGERS

"I can't predict a 10-team race as much as we would hope for one," Cronin said. "I pick the White Sox, Orioles, Twins and Tigers as the leading challengers to the Yankees because each has decidedly improved."

"The Yankees are still the Yankees."

"Their defense is as good as ever under new Manager Yogi Berra. But I didn't see Mickey Mantle step out. He's still favoring the knee on which he had the operation. Roger Maris wasn't doing much."

MOUND PROBLEM

"The biggest New York concern is pitching—namely solid help for Whitey Ford, Jim Bouton and Al Downing. The problem is not the eight men on the field, it's on the mound and in the bullpen."

The Cronin analysis of the four challengers:

Chicago — "Al Lopez is the most optimistic manager down there. In switching Don Buford up from Indianapolis, the White Sox have a mature, 27-year-old rookie second baseman who can fly and made the trade of Nellie Fox possible. The Sox have good speed and more pitching left in the big rookie, Fritz Ackley."

SEES BETTER RACE

Minnesota — "The team has a lot of tools. It is more mature now and looks the part. I was impressed by that young pitcher, Jerry Arigo. Sam Mele is alternating Bob Allison and Vic Power at first base. Bernie Allen is looking better at second. Zoilo Versalles is just terrific at short, continually making the big plays."

Detroit — "The line-up is much better looking with Jerry Lumpe at second base. He has helped Dick McAuliffe immeasurably. Don Demeter and Billy Bruton help in the outfield. Al Kaline wasn't hitting well this spring but that's no cause for concern because everyone knows what he can do. A great deal depends on the bat of Norm Cash and pitching."

The race — "I think it will be better as a result of the Dodgers beating New York in the World Series. Some of the teams who thought the Yankees were invincible may change their thinking."

Ask Holdup On Fight Confirmation

ROME (AP) — The Italian Boxing Federation has opened a campaign to keep the European light-heavyweight champion Giulio Rinaldi in Italy despite Giulio Rinaldi's loss of the crown last Saturday to Gustav (Bubi) Scholz of Germany.

The Italian group asked the European Boxing Union Monday to withhold confirmation of Scholz as champion. The IBF plans to officially protest Spanish Referee Sanchez Villar's ninth-round disqualification of Rinaldi.

Villar awarded Scholz the verdict after Rinaldi had hit the German with an illegal kidney punch near the end of the eighth round. The IBF contends that the official should have disqualified Rinaldi at the time of the foul—if at all.

Rinaldi has said he fouled Scholz only because the German turned around suddenly.

HOWARD HELPS DODGERS BEAT YANKEES 5-1

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer
Frank Howard, baseball's reluctant dragon, is breathing fire again and that means that Walt Alston, manager of the world champion Los Angeles Dodgers, can breathe just a little bit easier.

Howard, whose hulking 6-foot-7 form was conspicuously absent from the Dodger training camp for most of the spring, turned up last week and the flimsy Los Angeles attack hasn't been the same since.

The giant-sized outfielder stroked two more hits Monday night as Los Angeles whipped the New York Yankees 5-1 in an exhibition game. It brought his spring production to six hits in 15 appearances for a .400 average.

TOPS AMONG DODGERS

Personal problems kept Howard out of the Dodger camp until last week and without his bat the Dodger attack was somewhat on the skippy side. Howard's lifetime slugging average of .512, tops among the Dodgers and ninth best among active players, adds a needed punch to Alston's cast.

Howard's hitting shared the spotlight with Sandy Koufax pitching. The Dodger ace hurled six strong innings, allowing five hits and striking out six.

BELINSKY WINS AGAIN

Bo Belinsky, the Los Angeles Angel southpaw, continues to impress in the Angels' Palm Springs, Calif. camp. He won his second game of the spring Monday, allowing only three hits in six innings as Los Angeles defeated the Cleveland Indians 7-1.

Roger Craig, who had trouble getting runs with the New York Mets, is running into the same difficulty with the St. Louis Cardinals. Craig, the victim of 12 shutouts last season, shared pitching chores with Ray Saadecki and Bob Humphries and the Cards wound up on the short end of a 1-0 verdict against Baltimore.

6 PERFECT INNINGS

Elsewhere, Ken Johnson of Houston pitched six perfect innings but lost when Milwaukee bunched four hits for two runs in the second inning and a 2-1 victory. Manny Mota socked a grand slam homer, highlighting a six-run Pittsburgh rally and a 12-4 victory over Minnesota.

Kansas City lost its fifth straight as Detroit rallied for six runs in the last two innings and an 8-7 victory. Willie Mays clubbed two doubles and a triple as San Francisco topped the Chicago Cubs 9-7. The Chicago White Sox nipped the Mets 2-1 and Cincinnati defeated Philadelphia 5-3.

BEARS, BARONS TO OPEN SERIES

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Hershey Bears and Cleveland Barons, old hands in American Hockey League playoff competition, open a best-of-five games Calder Cup semifinal series this evening at Cleveland.

Cleveland, making its 26th appearance in postseason play, advanced to the semifinals by whipping Rochester 6-3 and 4-1 in the first two games of a best-of-three set. The Barons have not missed the playoffs in 24 straight seasons.

Hershey, next in line with 22 appearances, won its first-round set from Providence in three games. The Bears survived an 11-3 second-game drubbing and nipped the Reds 3-2 in the decisive contest.

The Hershey-Cleveland survivor will play the winner of the Quebec Aces-Pittsburgh Hornets series for the championship. Quebec takes a 3-0 bulge into Wednesday night's fourth game at Pittsburgh.

The Hornets were forced to go with third-string goalie Joe Daley when Detroit recalled Roger Crozier for the National Hockey League playoffs and alternate Hank Bassen was injured.

TEMPERS MAY FLARE TONIGHT AT DETROIT

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Tempers may flare in Detroit tonight if the red-necked Red Wings are half as mad as the Chicago Black Hawks as they are at referee Frank Udvari.

The veteran official took a verbal beating from Detroit Coach Sid Abel Monday as the Wings and Hawks prepared for the sixth game of their best-of-seven Stanley Cup semifinal series.

Detroit, trailing 3-2, is a step away from oblivion but the Red Wings have a ready-made capecoat in Udvari if they fail to force Chicago into a deciding seventh game.

Abel accused Udvari of "choking up" when he allowed a disputed Chicago goal in the Hawks' 3-2 victory last Sunday. He called the official's decision "ridiculous" and said it cost Detroit the game.

"I've never seen anything like this in all the time I've been in hockey," Abel said.

The Red Wings asked the National Hockey League to replace Udvari, scheduled to work Thursday's seventh game in Chicago—if there is one, with another referee. NHL President Clarence Campbell said, however, that such a change would be impossible.

GIVE STEWART FITNESS JOB

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The man who will be the new administrator for President Johnson's Council on Physical Fitness hasn't gained a pound since he lettered in three sports at Syracuse University in the 1930s.

St. Louis University athletic director, J. Robert Stewart, accepted the offer of the administrative job from Physical Council boss Stan Musial. Stewart flew to Washington Monday night to meet with Musial, who was appointed by the President Feb. 14th to head the council.

"I'm glad to get the job," said the 47-year-old Stewart, who weighs 190 pounds, and keeps his weight down by playing handball with such men as St. Louis Cardinal first baseman Bill White.

"St. Louis University has been good to me," the amiable native of Rochester, N.Y., said. "But the new job is a challenge and an upgrading. I believe I can meet the challenge."

Stewart lettered in football, basketball and soccer at Syracuse before he graduated in 1939. He coached in high schools at Syracuse and Rochester, N.Y., before becoming associate athletic director of Michigan State University. He conducted a combat fitness program while he was in the Navy in the mid-50s. Stewart became athletic director of St. Louis U. in 1958.

RAIN SHRINKS AUGUSTA FIELD FOR MASTERS

By JIM BECKER

Associated Press Sports Writer
AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — With every drop of rain, the Augusta National Golf Course grew longer, and the field for the Masters got smaller.

"This course always favors the long hitter," said veteran Byron Nelson. "And with a soaking rain, it favors the man who hits the ball a long way in the air. That's Jack Nicklaus."

"The rain cuts the field of players with a good chance down to only four or five," said the even more veteran Gene Sarazen. "Nicklaus, and just a handful of others; Arnold Palmer, old Sam Snead, maybe. And among the youngsters, Rex Baxter and Jack Rule."

"JUST WONDERFUL"

Nicklaus, the 24-year-old Golden Bear who last year was the youngest player ever to win the Masters, looked at the steady downpour Monday and admitted it didn't hurt chances to be the first player ever to repeat.

"This is just wonderful for me," he said.

Rain is expected to continue off and on through Wednesday, according to the Weather Bureau, although it is hoped the course will be fit for practice rounds today. It was closed before noon Monday.

OPENS THURSDAY

The tournament opens Thursday, and it seems highly unlikely there will be enough sunshine to put any roll back into the lush fairways.

Nicklaus was asked if he thought a wet course would turn the tournament into a Nicklaus-Palmer battle.

"I certainly hope so," Nicklaus said, "because that would mean that I would be right up there. Arnold is just about ready to start playing his best golf. He's hitting the ball as far as I've ever seen him hit it."

Palmer, the Masters winner in 1958, 1960 and 1962, agreed that he is driving in the Nicklaus range. "I'm happy about my driving, and I feel my irons are a little better," he said. "I've been playing pretty well, and I feel better coming into this tournament than I have for three or four years."

KOMIVES TOPS COURT SCORING

NEW YORK (AP)—Howard (Butch) Komives, Bowling Green's hot-handed backcourt ace, is the major college basketball scoring champion.

The 6-foot-1 senior fired at a 38.7 points-per-game clip-third highest average in history—and headed a record list of seven collegians with averages of better than 30 points per game, according to final statistics released today by the NCAA.

Nick Werkmann of Seton Hall, last year's No. 1 scorer, finished second this season with a 33.2 mark.

Manny Newsome, Western Michigan, 32.7; Bill Bradley, Princeton, 32.3; Rick Barry, Miami, Fla., 32.2; Gary Bradds, Ohio State, 30.6, and Steve Thomas, Xavier, Ohio, 30.0, completed the 30-point club.

Komives vaulted from 45th position a year ago to the top spot. He capped his college career with a record 50 straight free throws in his last five games.

JOPLIN, Mo. (AP)—Russia's women's basketball team, defending world champions, opened a five-game U.S. tour Monday night by overwhelming the Wayland College Flying Queens 78-36.

GIANTS HOME AS CHAMPS OF CACTUS LOOP

FRESNO, CALIFORNIA (AP)—The San Francisco Giants come home from preseason play bearing the championship of the Cactus League and some gaudy batting averages.

In beating the Chicago Cubs 9-7 Monday in Phoenix, the Giants boosted their record in Cactus League play to 21-5.

All but one of the Giants expected to be in the starting lineup April 14 when San Francisco opens the season against Milwaukee at Candlestick Park.

CEPEDA SETS RACE

First baseman Orlando Cepeda paced the batting binge with a .438 average. His hits included four doubles, five triples and a team-leading six home runs. He also batted 26 runs across to lead San Francisco in that category.

Centerfielder Willie Mays also enjoyed a fine spring, rapping the ball for a .411 average. Willie McCovey hit .391, Jimmy Davenport was .326 and catcher Tom Haller hit .315.

Only regular outside the 300 circle was shortstop Jose Pagan at .238.

MOST PLEASING

The averages most pleasing to Manager Alvin Dark, however, were those compiled by a pair of rookies he's counting on heavily in this year's pennant chase.

Jesus Alou, a candidate to replace his traded brother Felipe in right field, came through with a .387 average. And Jim Ray Hart, who is being counted on to plug the gap left by Davenport's switch to second, hit Cactus League pitching at a .351 pace.

RELIEF POURS INTO ALASKAN QUAKE AREAS

By JOE RIGERT

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—Thirty-five refugees from the village of Portage, 40 miles southeast of here, are staying in a log lodge called "Diamond Jim's."

An Anchorage grade school is home for 206 Indians from Kodiak Island.

Thirty-eight villagers from Chenega are living in a church at Cordova.

These are examples of how Alaskans and relief agencies are caring for those left homeless by the earthquake and tidal waves of March 27.

AID POURS IN

Disaster workers call it one of the most unusual and difficult relief operations of recent times. Faced with poor communications and great distances, relief forces have relied on helicopters, planes, trucks, autos and foot travel to bring aid.

Money and other contributions have poured in from around the country. A 7-year-old New Jersey boy offered an Easter basket. Portland lumbermen donated a shipload of lumber and longshoremen offered to load it without pay. The Japanese government and Pope Paul VI each sent $10,000. The Methodist Council of Bishops declared April 5 Alaska Earthquake Appeal Sunday.

CASH IS NEEDED

Red Cross and Salvation Army spokesmen said further shipments of food and clothing right now would only cause transportation, storage and handling problems. Instead, they said, Alaskans need cash with which to repair, rebuild and buy food and clothing.

No one has estimated how many were left homeless. The Red Cross says preliminary surveys indicate nearly 10,000 persons lost at least household items. The agency says the disaster destroyed an estimated 390 or more homes, did major damage to 580 others and minor damage to 580.

In Washington Monday, Gov. William Egan estimated damage amounted to at least $750 million.

Atlanta Hospital Integrates Clinic

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Grady Hospital, a huge public medical complex, operated its emergency clinic on a racially integrated basis Monday night for the first time.

A hospital spokesman said the move, an efficiency measure in the works for three years, had been approved by the hospital staff and the Fulton County, DeKalb County and Atlanta Medical Associations.

The emergency clinic treats more than 150,000 patients each year, including 100,000 Negroes.

BIG ROLE FOR DEFENSE IN NBA TONIGHT

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Defense, a word seldom heard around the National Basketball Association, plays a major role tonight as the Boston Celtics seek an unprecedented four-straight sweep in the Eastern Division finals against the Cincinnati Royals.

The Celtics, who dropped seven of 12 regular season games with the Royals, have unleashed a tenacious defense in sweeping the first three games of the series. Cincinnati, held to a top production of 92 points, seems doomed even with an apparent return to form by ailing Jerry Lucas and Oscar Robertson.

Red Auerbach, the Celtics' coach, is elated with the Boston performance. He called Sunday's victory, "one of the greatest defensive efforts I've ever seen."

In the Western Division final, the St. Louis Hawks and San Francisco Warriors resume their series Wednesday with the Hawks carrying a 2-1 margin.

Don't count Wilt Chamberlain and the Warriors out of it. Though their 35-point victory Saturday night was also a study in defense with the Hawks managing just 85 points. A repeat performance would bring the Warriors right back in the thick of things.

WBA RATINGS DROP LISTON

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—

Former heavyweight champion Sonny Liston hasn't been suspended by the World Boxing Association. But he can't fight to regain his crown until he is reinstated to the WBA's ratings.

Ed Lassman, WBA president, said Monday night that Liston had been dropped from the ratings because of a police charge pending in Denver. He is accused of carrying a concealed weapon.

The WBA said in a Monday release of ratings that "former heavyweight champion Sonny Liston was removed from the ratings due to his indefinite suspension."

However, Lassman said later, "Liston is not suspended; he is simply removed from the ratings."

Lassman said a correction would be made in next week's WBA bulletin.

COURT SUIT BRINGS MARCH

CHESTER, Pa. (AP)—About 500 civil rights demonstrators marched to the Chester police station Monday night after the city's school board went to court to seek a ruling in the school segregation issue.

The march was peaceful and none of the demonstrators was arrested.

Nearly 200 persons had been arrested in demonstrations throughout last week, in protest against alleged de facto school segregation. Thirty-five men are still in jail, awaiting bail.

The court suit, brought by the Chester School Board Monday, asks the Delaware County Court to rule whether Chester public schools are segregated.

The suit named the Chester Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and its president, George T. Raymond; the Chester Committee for Freedom Now and its leader, Stanley E. Brance; Dr. Felder E. Rouse Jr., a CFFN member and Lewis Brown, a vice president of the NAACP's Chester branch.

Statement On Philosophy That Guides Gettysburg Senior High School Given

As part of the extensive preparations that have been made during the current school year for the evaluation of the Gettysburg Senior High School by a team of visiting educators, a statement of the school staff's philosophy has been prepared.

The evaluation which begins this evening and will continue for three days will include an examination of this philosophy as part of a complete, detailed examination of the school.

The following is the complete statement of the philosophy under which the school operates:

"Every school needs a carefully formulated, comprehensive philosophy of education. A school without philosophy and objectives would be as aimless as a society without constitution and by-laws. The philosophy and objectives of the school and the characteristics and needs of its students together determine the nature of its program. The philosophy is a framework of basic principles of education which expresses the staff's convictions on such essential points as the scope of the school's responsibility for the education of youth, the nature of the educative process, the content and methods of instruction, desirable types of student activities and the outcomes to be attained.

SCHOOL RESPONSIBILITY

The following statements reflect the collective thinking of the staff regarding the important area of educational philosophy.

1. What is the responsibility of the school to the maintenance of the fundamental concepts of American democracy?

Our responsibility is to teach, practice and demonstrate in thought and action the concepts of freedom, the right of choice and responsibility. We must preserve our cherished democratic ideals by developing patriotic and well-informed individuals and by constant scrutiny of any forces that threaten our way of life.

2. What is the relationship of the school to other agencies in providing education?

The school does not function independently. The community of homes, churches, social groups, organizations and the press have purposes closely related to those of the school. Therefore, we do and must have working association with all related agencies for training.

RELATED TO KNOWLEDGE

3. Does the school have both primary and shared responsibilities?

Our primary function is to increase skills and knowledge. Our shared responsibilities are citizenship, health and vocation.

4. How is the educational program related to current knowledge of the nature of youth?

We believe that students are complex individuals endowed with varying abilities, interests, goals and needs. We believe the youth of today to be inquiring, to be sensitive to the heritage of democracy and its role in world affairs; to be conscious of challenge and opportunity; and to understand that each person is worthy and valuable to himself and to our democratic way of life. Consequently we try to adjust our educational program to the current nature of youth. We provide for individual differences, varying needs and a wide area of interests. We teach and practice the principles of democracy and freedom.

5. What types of offerings are included in the school program to meet differing student needs?

Our course offerings include: College preparatory, academic general, general, business, vocational-agriculture, home economics and industrial arts. We provide also a program for non-academic students; special educational classes, electives: typing, public speaking, extra language courses, industrial arts, home economics, art appreciation, music history and theory.

6. How are methods of instruction related to present knowledge of the nature of learning?

We recognize that rewarding experiences promote learning, that a friendly and understanding attitude toward students must accompany a learning situation, and that freedom to explore and solve problems increases the learner's strength and desire. Such concepts of learning determine our methods of instruction.

Many learning devices are used, such as correlation, demonstration, review and testing. Through reading, listening, reporting and writing students broaden their learning.

7. Is the school concerned with all phases of the growth of the student as an individual?

Our school tries to promote intellectual, emotional, social, cultural and character growth. While academic skills and knowledge are our main concern, we in cooperation with various agencies of the community emphasize all phases of the individual's growth.

8. What is the role of the teacher in the process of education?

The role of the teacher in the process of education is to enable each young American to grow to maturity and find his place in this rapidly changing world by correlating the values of the past and the needs for the explosive present and the enigmatic future. We must help each student discover and develop his best potentialities so that he can be personally happy and socially useful. To attain such a result, we teachers recognize and strive to meet the needs of the student in relation to the demands of culture, society and the individual himself.

9. What is the relationship between teachers and students?

Understanding, cooperation, confidence and respect between teacher and student foster desirable learning situations and results. Pupils are treated as individuals and as members of society. They are encouraged to develop themselves and to be worthy citizens.

10. What is the relationship between administration and teachers?

Cooperation between the administrators and teachers is founded upon sympathy for each other's point of view and recognition of the administrator's right to leadership and the teacher's right to self-expression. Administration and supervision are carried out in a democratic and efficient manner. Problems are solved mutually with recognition given each teacher as an individual.

11. Is education a right, a privilege, or both?

Education is defined as "the discipline of mind or character through study and discipline." Possibly the very fact that human beings possess the faculty of a "mind" deems education as a right. It is the right of every child to have the opportunity to develop his abilities in order that he may become a useful citizen of not only the community but also of the nation and the world. However, education is also a privilege which has been established by our democratic processes of our nation. No child in our community is denied an education because of his race, color or creed. Provisions have been made for handicapped children and work is constantly going on to provide for the academically accelerated students. It is the right of every child to have the opportunity to secure an education, but it is the privilege of the child to get an education.

12. What is the attitude of the staff toward student promotion?

We believe that all students with reasonable accomplishment and cooperation deserve to be promoted. Their entire future is at stake. The community expects this from the school. We think also that not every student will meet the minimum requirements; therefore, there will be some students who will fail.

13. Is equal educational opportunity offered to students with varying interests and abilities?

The program of studies which have been developed at Gettysburg High School has been set up in such a way that each individual student, with proper counseling and guidance from parents and school, may select his own course in order to prepare himself to follow certain vocational plans after graduating from high school. These programs have been developed to fulfill the needs of the student. The studies included are intended to contribute to the attainment of the college preparatory course which is designed to make it possible for a student to meet the entrance requirements of any liberal arts college. The general college preparatory course has been established for the student who wishes to fulfill the requirements for some liberal arts colleges and technical schools. This course will also prepare students for school nursing, state colleges and special schools. The general course offers a rather broad curriculum and is recommended to students who are undecided as to future plans. The business course prepares a student for general office positions such as a secretary, bookkeeper, clerk-typist, filing clerk, etc. The industrially arts course offers experience in graphic arts, metal works, wood works and drafting techniques for those students who will be going into business and industry. It will provide on-the-job training for those students under the direct supervision of the school personnel. The vocational agriculture course prepares boys for proficiency in farming, gives them training to help them qualify for many related occupations in agriculture and provide a basic preparation for college entrance. The vocational home economics course prepares girls for proficiency in family living. Thus the school provides wide opportunities for its students. Diversified opportunities for non-academic students are now provided, including special education classes. The constant evaluation of changing needs, conditions and results prompt a continuous readjustment of our program.

14. What is the attitude of the staff toward the educational values of student activities?

Although an increased credit requirement has decreased the school time usually allowed for student activities, the faculty has responded by voluntarily using free time to help guide the students in their various activities. For example, our school has an outstanding group of Future Farmers of America and an equally outstanding group of Future Homemakers of America. Both the faculty advisors find time before or after the regular class work to maintain the high records which these two organizations have had throughout the years. The local group of the Future Teachers of America does most of its work after the regular school day and the teacher participation with these students has helped to guide many excellent students into the teaching profession. The journalism groups are also enthusiastically supported by the staff. Both students and faculty spend many extra hours working on the school paper and yearbook. Many other activities such as cheering, varsity club, music groups meet after school.

15. What are the responsibilities of the school to the community?

Our responsibility to the community is to cooperate with agencies that develop youth; analyze and provide educational, vocational and social facilities to meet the needs of our particular area; set a pattern of leadership, understanding and concern for the improvement of our entire community.

We stress the importance of community activities and organizations such as Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Community Athletic Association, Youth Center and churches. We provide speakers, musicians and active members from the faculty and students for community programs, parades and concerts. We keep the public constantly informed of the school's business programs, personnel needs and trends in education. We provide night school to meet the needs and desires of our patrons."

Summit Hill, Pa. (AP) — State Supreme Court Justice Michael A. Musmanno, candidate for the Democratic nomination for U.S. Senate, says Sen. William Fulbright, D-Ark., "grievously erred" when he said the communist menace to the free world is a "myth."

Musmanno, in a speech Sunday night to the St. Gabriele Lodge, made no reference to state politics in his talk, but said, "Communism is the greatest threat the human race has faced in history and we must look at realities as they are and not dismiss them as myths."

He took issue with Fulbright's recent remark that it was only a myth that the Communist bloc is a monolith determined to destroy the free world.

Musmanno said, "Monolith means a big stone, and that is exactly what communism is in Russia. Only a heart of stone would deprive the Jewish people of the right to eat their holy bread of matzoth during the Passover season. Freedom of religion is the very soul of democracy and a representative government."

The earliest settlers on Colorado's Mesa Verde probably arrived shortly after the time of Christ and by 500 or 600 A.D. they were building comfortable pit houses.

New idea in life insurance!

Nationwide's "Adjustable Plan" lets one policy do the work of four

You buy one policy, then add or subtract other kinds of protection as often as your needs change. It is the most flexible plan ever.

Include any of these "Benefits" in one Nationwide policy. Add or subtract them as your needs change.

These 4 "Benefits" required separate policies until now

Wife and Children Benefit: Provides insurance for wife and each child. All children born after the "Benefit" starts are insured automatically after 15 days at no extra cost. This "Benefit" also guarantees your children can get more life insurance of their own when they reach age 22—regardless of their health at the time.

College Savings Benefit: Provides money to pay for your children's college education. You pay as much as 15 percent less for this plan than for all other college endowment-type plans. Nationwide guarantees the money you pay in will earn substantial interest. NOTE: The sooner you start, the lower your payments.

Family Security Benefit: Low-cost, extra insurance for father. It provides a large amount of protection for wife and children while children are young. Then it decreases in face value as children grow older. It is called decreasing term insurance. Can be carried by father for a term of 10, 15, 20 years, or to his age 65.

"Level Term" Benefit: Good to have to protect family against large debt. It is term insurance. It runs for a specific term—10 or 15 years. It does not build up cash value. It is pure insurance. That's why it costs less than insurance that builds up cash value. Level term pays full face amount if you die anytime within term.

These 5 "Benefits" can also be added to your one policy

"Dividend Term" Benefit: Insurance that is completely paid for by the dividends from your basic policy. Good to have if you borrow money from your policy—makes sure your wife will receive full amount of policy if you die before repaying money you borrowed.

Guaranteed Insurability Benefit: Lets you buy more insurance—as much as $60,000 more—as you get older regardless of health. You'd be surprised how many men find it difficult and costly to get more insurance as they grow older because their health changes.

Accidental Death Benefit: Can provide as much as two and three times the face amount of your basic life insurance policy if death is due to an accident. A "must" if you travel a lot. Nationwide now offers this "Benefit" to age 70 instead of just age 65.

Waiver of Premium Benefit: Self-completing "Benefit." If you become totally and permanently disabled and can't work, Nationwide will make all your premium payments for you. This "Benefit" lets you keep your full insurance protection no matter what happens.

Retirement Benefit: Guarantees your right to buy retirement income anytime in the future at today's low prices. Can save you quite a bit. Cost of retirement insurance is steadily going up as people live longer, but your low premium will always stay the same.

Until today, if you had a life insurance policy on yourself, you had to buy a new policy to insure your wife. Another for your mortgage. And so on. Complicated. And you paid extra to have the new policies written.

Today, Nationwide's "Adjustable Life Plan" ends all this. It lets you custom-tailor a single policy to fit your needs, and change it as your needs change. Simple. And it gets rid of those extra costs. Here's how it works:

LET'S SAY you already have a policy on yourself, and you now want to insure your wife and new baby.

Until now, you had to buy a brand-new policy to insure them both.

There were drawbacks to this. You had to pay extra to cover the paper work involved in writing a new policy. You also had to take more insurance on yourself.

Eliminates paying extra costs

Now with Nationwide's "Adjustable Life Plan," you can insure your wife and child without buying a brand-new policy and without buying more insurance on yourself.

You select Nationwide's "Wife and Children Benefit" and add it to your basic Nationwide policy. It's as simple as that.

Add or subtract 9 "Benefits"

You can do the same thing with four different "Benefits" that used to require buying separate policies—the top four described at the left. Besides that, you can add the five described below at the left. Nine "Benefits" in all.

With these nine "Benefits," you can custom-tailor a single policy to fit your needs. Add the "Benefits" as you need them. Subtract them as your needs change.

If you'd like to learn more about this amazingly flexible plan, call your local Nationwide representative today. He can lend you a hand with all your insurance needs—life, health, home and auto. He's listed in the Yellow Pages.

IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR NATIONWIDE POLICYHOLDERS

If you now own a basic Nationwide Life Insurance policy (Whole Life or Endowment), and you bought it since 1948, you can go back and revise it with any of these nine "Benefits."

PACIFIC AREA LEADS NATION IN MOURNING

TOKYO (AP) — A saddened Japan led the world tribute today to General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, its wartime conqueror who led it to peace, prosperity and democracy.

A sense of sorrow also swept the Philippines and South Korea, two other Asian nations in whose destinies MacArthur was deeply involved, at the news of his death.

SEND YOSHIDA

The Japanese government sent the nation's most beloved elder statesman, former Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida, to represent Japan at MacArthur's funeral.

"I cannot forget the great achievement of the general in rebuilding our nation out of the ashes of defeat," said Yoshida.

"Out of the stringent food shortages, out of the confusion of our political, economic and social systems, and out of the insecurity of men's hearts, MacArthur laid the foundations for a new Japan which became the source of our nation's prosperity today."

FRIEND OF JAPANESE

In a message to President Johnson, Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda said the Japanese respected MacArthur "not only as a soldier but as a friend." Emperor Hirohito and Empress Nagako also sent their condolences.

On the streets of Japan, people remembered MacArthur particularly for bringing in huge quantities of food in the immediate postwar months to feed a destitute population.

PHILIPPINES MOURN

In the Philippines, where MacArthur's wartime pledge "I shall return" gave hope during the Japanese occupation, President Diosdado Macapagal declared a period of national mourning.

"A source of courage in our darkest hour, Gen. MacArthur symbolized the highest degree of Philippine - American friendship and affection," Macapagal said in a message to Johnson. "Your loss is our loss. His name is deeply engraved in the hearts of all Filipinos."

KOREANS PAY TICKETS

South Korea's President Chung Hee Park said Koreans will remember MacArthur forever for "his contributions toward their independence and democracy."

"Not only the United States but the whole world has lost a most outstanding soldier and one of the greatest of statesmen," Park said.

WAS LAST CAMPAIGN

Korea was the scene of MacArthur's last military campaign. He was removed from command of the U.N. forces in Korea in 1951 for opposing President Harry S. Truman's decision to limit the conflict to Korea.

New Zealand's Prime Minister Keith J. Holyoake memorialized MacArthur as "one of the greatest commanders of the last war."

INDIAN PRAISE

An Indian government spokesman said MacArthur was "one of those few great generals who proved themselves even greater administrators."

In Canberra, Australian Prime Minister Sir Robert G. Menzies said MacArthur was "undoubtedly a great soldier, a man of remarkable talents and personality and he has an assured place in Australian history."

ANNIVERSARY OF 110 - ROUND BATTLE IN LA.

By BEN THOMAS

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Two boxers slugged it out in a ring for seven hours and 30 minutes in New Orleans exactly 71 years ago today.

Referee John Duffy called it a draw—no contest—after neither Andy Bowen nor Jack Burke threw a punch in the 110th round.

The 110-round bout still stands as the longest glove fight on record.

"There was no way of forcing the men to fight," said Duffy. Bowen, 129, of New Orleans, and Burke, 130, of Galveston, Tex., fought that night for the lightweight championship of the South.

FANS ASLEEP

Some 8,500 fight fans were on hand at the start. Many were still there when Duffy ended it at 3:45 a.m., although "a number were asleep," according to the Daily Picayune's account of the battle.

Bowen was a veteran fighter, ranked as one of the top lightweights in the South. Burke, who broke his wrists in the bout, was a green newcomer.

Both began slowing down as the rounds began mounting. After the 50th, the crowd started whistling "Home Sweet Home."

"Why don't you fight?" Bowen asked Burke after the 51st round.

PURSE SPLIT

"I cannot, both of my hands are gone," Burke replied. Bowen scored the only knock-down three times himself—one in a clinch, and twice when he lost his balance after missing Burke with wild, swinging punches.

The Olympic Boxing Club decided to split the $2,500 purse equally between the two fighters.

Just a month later Bowen fought another long bout—defeating Jack Everhardt in an 85-round bout which lasted five hours, 35 minutes.

DIED AFTER KO

In another 18 months, Bowen was dead. In a fight Dec. 14, 1894, with George (Kid) Lavigne in New Orleans, Bowen was

"There Is No Substitute For Victory," Said General MacArthur Before Dismissal

By STANLEY MEISLER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former Speaker Joseph W. Martin Jr. once made public a letter that ended the military career of a friend. The friend never mentioned the letter again, and neither did Martin, and the two remained close to the end.

The friend was General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, who died Sunday. In a reminiscent interview, Martin reviewed the events that swirled about the historic letter.

"I had wanted some ammunition to answer some of the Democratic arguments about the war in Korea," said Martin, "and so I wrote a letter to MacArthur asking for his views."

WAS DISMISSED

Martin, a Republican congressman from Massachusetts who was House minority leader then, received a reply from MacArthur. In the reply, MacArthur wrote Martin, "There is no substitute for victory," and he disagreed with President Harry S. Truman's decision to limit the war to Korea itself and to leave enemy bases in Communist China alone.

"I had asked him for his views, and his reply did not say that his views were confidential, but I was not sure what to do," Martin said. "I walked around the block several times before I finally made up my mind. I decided that if he did not want his views known he would have said so."

HAD NO REGRETS

Martin, in the midst of a House debate on the Korean War in April 1951, released the letter.

Two days after the letter was made public, Truman dismissed MacArthur as the American commander in the Far East, and the long military career of the general came to an end. "I never had any regrets about making that letter public," Martin said. "I always figured that Truman wanted to fire MacArthur anyway. He did it all too quickly. He fired him two days after I released the letter. If it had not been the letter, Truman would have found some other excuse."

MET IN 1939

"It is funny," the 79-year-old congressman continued. "MacArthur never mentioned that letter to me at all. And I never said a word about it, either. I always felt, let sleeping dogs lie."

Martin said he first met MacArthur when the general was Army chief of staff during the early 1930s. The late Mayor Fiorello La Guardia of New York, then a Republican congressman, brought them together.

"Mayor La Guardia had his apartment, and he liked to make chowder, and one day, he said to me, 'Come on over and have some chowder with General MacArthur,'" Martin recalled.

REFUSED GOP BID

"We saw each other from time to time. I would not say we were intimates. But we were friends. In 1952, I went to see him and suggested that he become a candidate for the Republican nomination for president."

"No," he replied to me. "I can't become a candidate. Bob Taft has earned the nomination. I have always felt that MacArthur might have announced as a candidate if Taft had withdrawn from the race, but Taft, of course, had no intention of withdrawing, because he thought he would win the nomination, and he almost did." Martin, who said he always called on MacArthur when vis-

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

HEARD, BUT NOT SEENT? Are you aware of the voices around you? How do they sound? Only listen and you shall hear how the voice has the power to repel or appeal. How it mirrors the mind, attitude and even the age of a speaker.

A woman may be altogether attractive to the eyes but, if her voice offends the ears, her charm rating takes a sharp plunge.

Perhaps, as we don our new spring finery, we girls should give a little thought to the finesse of our voices. The best way to begin is to recall the people you know with unpleasant voices. What qualities make them uniting New York in the last few years, walked to the other end of his office to point to a framed document.

PAULUS SPEECH

It was a copy of a speech by a Roman general, Lucius Clemens Paulus, replying to his military critics in 168 B.C.

The speech said, in part: "If therefore, anyone thinks himself qualified to give advice respecting the war which I am conducting, which may prove advantageous to the public, let him not refuse his assistance to the state, but let him come with me to Macedonia."

"He shall be furnished with a ship, a horse, a tent; even his traveling charges shall be defrayed."

"But if he thinks this too much trouble and prefers the repose of a city life to the tools of war, let him not, on land, assume the office of a pilot." Underneath was the inked inscription "Amen!" and the signature, "Douglas MacArthur." "He sent this to me two years ago," Martin said. "It sort of touches the whole point of everything, doesn't it?"

tenable!

A twanging or whining nasal pitch is probably the most annoying—like the buzzing of a bee around your head. Running a close second is the flat, monotonous tone that bores the ear into tuning out. Then there's the itchy-bitty girl voice and the raucous "tom-girl" voice. As both are pure affectation, their sound affronts more than the ears.

A winning voice is never affected. It is low but audible, and richly colored. To possess such a voice, you only have to listen to the sounds you make and improve them as need be. A nasal pitch disappears if you speak off your vocal cords, instead of through the nose. A monotone is conquered by "feeling" what you say. Affections are remedied simply by hearing them as others hear them, as totally untrue to the nicest you.

Work on the project, and you'll soon sound as lovely as you look!

Plan Memorial Atop Corregidor

WASHINGTON (AP)—State Department officials disclosed today that in 1962 it was proposed to Gen. Douglas MacArthur that after his death he be buried at the highest point of Corregidor Island.

A memorial is to be raised there—where MacArthur's Philippine defenders finally surrendered to the Japanese in 1942—to the dead of the Pacific fighting in World War II.

MacArthur's advisers told the State Department that the general had made a commitment the year before to be buried at the MacArthur Memorial site in Norfolk, Va., where he will be laid to rest Saturday.

James MARLOW Reports

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Douglas MacArthur was not a simple man. He was romantic, but tough; eloquent, but sentimental; charming, but austere; but suspicious.

He felt some people, besides Communists, were his enemies conspiring against him. Because he so often wished his views to prevail, he was some times hard to get along with.

One writer, Richard Rovere, said MacArthur was a "true believer in himself" and found it "necessary to ascribe his disappointments . . . to base intrigues."

DIFFERENT WITH CHIEF

Although Gen. John J. Pershing, MacArthur's top commander in World War I, decorated him, the New York Times says Pershing told him "Young man, I do not like your attitude."

Arthur Schlesinger Jr., in his history of the New Deal, says President Franklin D. Roosevelt thought MacArthur dangerous. If so, he nevertheless made him his chief of staff, commander in the Pacific, and gave him the Medal of Honor.

The Washington Post's military editor, John G. Norris, reports that when Maj. Dwight D. Eisenhower served under MacArthur in the Philippines in 1935 they had differences of opinion and Eisenhower returned home.

FIRE BY TRUMAN

President Harry S. Truman dismissed MacArthur from his Korean command in 1951 for what he considered insubordination by publicly airing his views on how to win the war, contrary to Truman's orders and policies. The final straw was when MacArthur wrote to a congressman.

But Norris points out MacArthur fought general headquarters when he was a hero of World War I in Europe. When Pershing crossed him, Norris says, word "was gotten back to interested congressmen and Gen. Pershing's plans were killed."

When the second volume of Truman's memoirs appeared in 1956, explaining why he fired MacArthur, the general said the former president "did violence to the truth" and was "vengeful."

SAW INTRIGUES

But MacArthur saw intrigue in his dismissal. He said it happened after he had demanded prosecution of a spy ring which was getting top secret military plans sent to Washington from his Korean command.

He said he thought Gen. George C. Marshall, then secretary of defense, and Gen. Omar Bradley, then chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, were "personally hostile to me" and that the enmity went back some time.

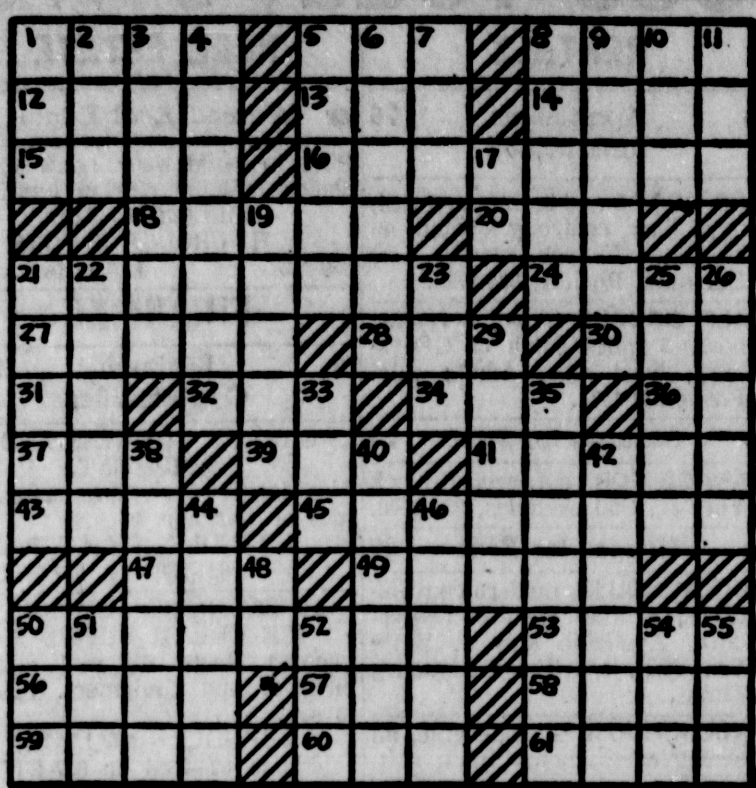

Yet, Truman's record of his conversations with MacArthur at Wake Island six months before his dismissal quotes the general as saying, "No commander in the history of war ever had more complete and adequate support from all agencies in Washington than I have."

WHITNEY'S BOOK

But it was Maj. Gen. Courtney Whitney, MacArthur's aide and confidant for more than 20 years, who did the biggest job of rounding up the various intrigues supposedly working against the general.

Whitney, who was with MacArthur when he died last Sunday, put together a 547-page justification of what MacArthur did or didn't do in a book called "MacArthur: His Rendezvous With History."

He said "Communists and their dupes" found "an ally in the 'Europe-first' clique in the War and State Departments at the outbreak of World War II" in an attempt to discredit the general "in every way and thwart his efforts against the enemy."

CRITICIZED IN '32

In 1932 MacArthur was widely criticized for leading — in full uniform and on a white horse — regular troops and tanks ordered by President Herbert Hoover to oust the "bonus army" veterans of World War I who had holed up in shacks on the outskirts of Washington.

Whitney's explanation: The veterans were infiltrated with Communists who wanted to create mob violence against the government. He writes of a "captured secret document in which the Communists planned to hang high government officials," with MacArthur heading the list.

MacArthur, when the storm broke over him, said the "mob was a bad-looking mob. It was animated by the essence of revolution."

REPORT BOEHM WILL RESIGN THIS WEEK

HARRISBURG (AP) — Speculation that Dr. Charles H. Boehm, would resign this week as state superintendent of public instruction, was neither confirmed nor denied Monday night by a spokesman for the department.

"When Dr. Boehm decides to resign, you can be absolutely certain we will let everyone in Pennsylvania know it," the spokesman said when asked to comment on rumors.

Asked however, if Boehm may be planning to resign, but has not yet submitted his letter of resignation, the spokesman replied: "I'm not now in position to say."

Boehm could not be reached for comment immediately. The spokesman for the department declined to be identified by name.

One rumor had it that Boehm's resignation would come this week as a result of differences with the Scranton administration. Asked if such differences existed, the spokesman said:

"No two people see eye to eye on everything. Dr. Boehm certainly holds Gov. Scranton in high esteem and I am sure Gov. Scranton holds Dr. Boehm in high esteem."

If Boehm should step down as superintendent, the spokesman added, it will be because of a more attractive position elsewhere, not because of any differences with the governor.

PENNSYLVANIA FORD DEALERS SET ALL-TIME SALES RECORD!

Total Performance in action

Ford ended 1963 as the NASCAR (National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing) "Stock Car of the Year" and started 1964 as Motor Trend magazine's "Car of the Year." Basis for both awards—Ford's Total Performance . . . and here's the way this Total Performance has fared thus far in '64 events:

Ford leads all makes in 1964 NASCAR open competition

Ford's latest win, a 1-2 finish in the "Southeastern 500" at Bristol, Tennessee, gives the new Super Torque Ford a commanding lead in NASCAR scoring. In events of 500 miles or more, Ford has won an impressive 10 out of its last 11!

Fairlane offers same basic V-8 as the race-winning Cobra

Cobra—with its modified Fairlane engine—is dominating production sports car racing in the U.S. and holds the SCCA Class "A" championship. The same basic 289-cu. in. V-8 that powers Cobra is available in any of 8 Fairlane models for '64—giving sports-car spirit to this family-size car!

Falcon enters two classes, wins both in Monte Carlo Rallye

Eight new Falcons were among the 299 cars entered in the 1964 Monte Carlo Rallye. Only 163 of the starters finished this tortuous, 2700-mile test . . . but all 8 Falcons were among 'em. And Falcon won both its classes—defeating great European rally cars like Jaguar and Mercedes.

Three Alternatives On Recreation Area

WASHINGTON (AP)—A recommendation that the Forest Service administer the recreation facilities at the Allegheny River Dam and Reservoir in Pennsylvania is expected to be approved soon by Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall.

The recommendation is included in a report prepared by the department's Bureau of Outdoor Recreation. The bureau made a study of the project's recreation potential and an evaluation as to where the responsibility should be placed for the program.

The alternatives lie between the Forest Service, the National Park Service, and the Army Engineers. The latter are in charge of construction of the dam and reservoir at Kinzua, Pa.

TRUCK KILLS MAN AND WIFE

WOODSTOWN, N.J. (AP)—Fred Davis, 60, and his wife, Mary, 58, of Norristown, Pa., were killed Monday in a collision of a tractor-trailer and a car about eight miles north of here.

New Jersey State Police said the tractor-trailer, driver by Edward Williams, 33, of Philadelphia, skidded past a stop sign on the wet Swedesboro-Monroeville Road and collided with the Davis car on Route 45.

The couple was pinned in the wreckage.

A technical charge of reckless driving was placed against Williams, who was released in $10,000 bail by county Judge Joseph Kramer.

The Davises ran a beauty shop in Norristown.

Three Phil Pitchers Placed On Waivers

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—Jim Miller, Dave Roberts and Darrell Sutherland, all first-year Philadelphia Phillies pitchers, were placed on waivers Monday by the Phillies, and all three were claimed by other National League baseball teams.

The Cincinnati Reds claimed Miller, the Pittsburgh Pirates, Roberts, and the New York Mets, Sutherland.

The Phillies retained three other first-year men—pitchers Dave Bennett and Rick Wise and outfielder John Briggs.
